Recommended semester/trimester of study:
Level of study: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for passing the subject: When preparing the final thesis, the student follows the instructions of the supervisor and the Rector's guidelines on the preparation, registration, access and archiving of final, thesis, dissertation and habilitation papers written at Selye János University. The recommended length of the final thesis is 30 to 40 pages (54 000 to 72 000 characters with spaces). The deadline for submission of the final thesis is specified in the timetable for the academic year. The final thesis is checked for authenticity in the central register of final theses. A record of the result is drawn up. The examination of authenticity is a prerequisite for the defence. The submission of the final thesis includes a licence agreement between the student and the Slovak Republic, represented by the University, on the use of digital copies of the final thesis. The final thesis will be evaluated by the supervisor and the assessor, who will prepare their evaluation on the basis of the criteria provided. The supervisor will mainly assess the fulfilment of the objective, the student's independence and initiative in the development of the topic, the cooperation with the supervisor, the logical structure of the final thesis, the chosen methods and methodology, the professional quality of the thesis, the depth and quality of the development of the topic, the usefulness of the thesis, the applicability of its results, the work with literature, the relevance of the sources used, as well as the formal features, spelling, style and originality of the thesis. The assessor will focus on the relevance and appropriateness of the topic of the thesis, the aim of the thesis and its fulfilment, the logical structure of the final thesis, the sequencing and division of chapters, the appropriateness of the methods and methodology used, and the professional quality of the thesis, the depth and quality of the treatment of the topic, the usefulness of the thesis, the applicability of its results, the work with the literature, the relevance of the sources used, and the formal features, spelling, style and originality of the thesis. The examination board will assess the originality of the essay, the degree of student involvement in the solution of the scientific problem, the student's independence and ability to solve the scientific problem - including the search for literature, the formulation of objectives, the choice of method, the selection of research material, the ability to evaluate, the ability to discuss the results, the summary and presentation of the results, and the relevance to the educational process, etc. The committee will also assess the ability to present the results, including answers to questions on the topic, adherence to time constraints, etc.

The State Examination Board will evaluate the examination in an informal meeting and decide on the mark. The grading is a complex assessment of the quality of the final paper and its defence, taking into account the critiques and the course of the examination. The committee will mark the defence with an aggregate mark. The mark may be the same as, or better or worse than, the mark given in the marks, depending on the course of the defence.

The grading scale is A - 100-91%, B - 90-81%, C - 80-71%, D - 70-61%, E - 60-50%. A student who does not achieve 50% will not receive credit.

The results of the oral and theoretical part of the examination will be announced by the chairman of the board in public.

Name of the university: J. Selye University
Name of the faculty: Faculty of Education
Code: KAV/KAdb/SEK/22	Name: Seminar of Ecclesiastics
Types, range and methods of educational activities: Form of study: Recommended extent of course (in hours): Per week: For the study period: Methods of study: present
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester of study: 2.
Level of study: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for passing the subject: The student must attend the seminar in accordance with the current study regulations (see Art. 8. Organization of Educational Activities of the Study Regulations of J. Selye University). Active, initiative participation in meetings, individual study and collective evaluation of literature; elaboration of a seminar paper on the issues of a certain segment of the field. The course is evaluated in accordance with the study regulations (See Art. 10. Control of study and evaluation of study results of the Study Regulations results). Student workload: 3 credits = 75-90 hours 26 hours participation in contact classes; 11 hours study of recommended literature, preparation of presentations and seminar papers; 38-53 hours self-study.
Results of education: Knowledge: The student will gain practical knowledge, building on theoretical ecclesiological and ecclesiastical knowledge, of practical issues in the following areas: the practice of church life; the foundations and logic of church functioning; the activity of the church in secular affairs; the political, cultural, and social activity of the church; the theoretical and practical possibilities of ecumenical relationships; and the denominational characteristics of the various denominations. Skills: Through individual study of selected topics in ecclesiology and ecclesiastics, the graduate will gain a deeper knowledge of specialized areas of the discipline. The student will be able to gain insight into the life of relatively closed communities - churches, into the internal logic of their activities, and to understand the motivation and mission of churches. He will be able to better differentiate between denominations. Competencies: The knowledge acquired teaches a nuanced perception that replaces a generalizing approach to different groups in society. The student will be able to examine the church openly by seeking to understand its specific logic. In this way, the student's empathetic attitude will be strengthened. The graduate will acquire a responsible attitude, will be able to take a responsible stance and will be able to think independently about issues related to the subject.
