Types, range and methods of educational activities: Form of study: Seminar Recommended extent of course (in hours): Per week: 1 For the study period: 13 Methods of study: present
Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of study: 1.
Level of study: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for passing the subject: The condition for passing the subject is active participation in the seminars, which consist of a theoretical and practical part. During the practical part, the student will try out, practice, and at the end, demonstrate basic practical skills in providing emergency first aid in various simulated situations and various types of injuries and accidents. The partial evaluation of the subject represents the evaluation of the protocols for some human organ systems, which the student will receive as homework (30%). In the final part, the student proves his theoretical knowledge by completing the test (70%). Final grade of the subject: A – 100-90%, B – 89-80%, C – 79-70%, D – 69-60%, E – 59-50%. Achieving 50% of the total points is necessary to award credits. Total student load: 2 credits = 60 hours (13 hours: participation in seminars, 47 hours: self-study and preparation for the exam, preparation of protocols).
Results of education: Knowledge: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The student can characterize the ontogenetic development of a person from the formation of gametes through pre-embryonic development to the end of post-embryonic development. - The student can characterize the individual organ systems of a person with an emphasis on the morphological and functional characteristics of these systems in specific age periods, focusing mainly on childhood and adolescence. - The student can summarize theoretical knowledge about basic life-saving actions, disorders of consciousness, breathing disorders, seizures, bleeding from wounds, shock, fractures, joint injuries, and burns. Abilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The student can understand and grasp the physiological processes that take place in the human body. - The student can explain and use the anatomy, morphology, and physiology of the human body in his teaching practice. - The student can practically perform essential emergency support of life functions - opening the airways, rescue breathing, chest compressions (heart massage), stopping bleeding, stabilizing position, cardiopulmonary resuscitation (revival), including the use of automatic external defibrillation,

- The student can provide psychological support to the disabled.
- The student can explain the importance of health protection already in childhood and can approach individual problems related to biological development processes in the organism concerning the given age of the child.
- The student can practically use knowledge and skills in dealing with sudden life and serious health-threatening processes of traumatic and/or non-traumatic origin.

Competencies:

- The student gains an overview of the functioning of the human body and the diseases that can most often affect human health, thereby gaining a positive attitude towards protecting and maintaining their health.
- The student acquires a positive attitude toward providing first aid and preventing sudden threats to the life and health of school-age children and adults.

Brief syllabus:

Characteristics of cell structure, individual tissue types. Ontogenetic development.

Human skeleton, characteristics of bones, morphological and functional characteristics of the skeleton in childhood. First aid for joint injuries, broken limbs, skull, and spine.

Characteristics of the muscular system, morphological and functional characteristics of the muscular apparatus in childhood. First aid for injuries to tendons, muscles, and contusions.

Respiratory system, morphological and functional characteristics of the respiratory system in childhood. First aid for respiratory arrest, removal of a foreign body from the airways, artificial respiration.

Circulatory system, morphological and functional characteristics of the circulatory system in childhood.

First aid for cardiac arrest, blood clotting, stopping bleeding in different types of wounds, types of dressings, and wound dressing techniques.

Characteristics of sense organs. Morphological and functional characteristics of sensory organs in childhood.

First aid for burns caused by caustics and chemicals.

Structure of the nervous system, morphological and functional characteristics of the nervous system in childhood. Damage to the nervous system, epileptic seizure, convulsions, and first aid.

Characteristics of the endocrine system, hormones, morphological and functional characteristics of the endocrine system in childhood.

Characteristics of genital systems. Morphological and functional characteristics of the genital system in childhood. The most common sexually transmitted diseases.

Gastrointestinal system, morphological and functional characteristics of the gastrointestinal system in childhood. Poisoning, drug poisoning, alcohol poisoning, food poisoning.

Excretory system, morphological and functional characteristics of the excretory system in childhood. The most common diseases of the excretory system.

Types of shock states, distributive types of shock, anaphylactic shock, and allergies.

Prerequisites:
Conditions for passing the subject: Final student assessment (max. 100 points = 100%): independent written work and final test. Prerequisites: - Active participation of the student in lectures, - active participation of the student in the course of the course, - successful completion of the final test. During the semester the student must prepare: - written thesis: The student has to construct a knowledge test in the context of his/her own approbation course. The paper should include: 1.) a knowledge test with a maximum time limit of 45 minutes, 2.) the correct answer key for each item, 3.) instructions for measurement (when, under what circumstances pupils can write the test, what aids they can use, etc.), 4.) A brief analysis of the curriculum (grade level; specific part of the curriculum covered etc.). Assessment criteria: - Form requirement (10 points), - content requirement, methodological correctness (20 points), - quality of instructions and key (20 points). Assessment criteria on the basis of the scores: to achieve an A grade 90-100% (50-46 points); for grade B, 80-89% (45-41 points); for grade C, 70-79% (40-36 points); for grade D, 60-69% (35-31 points); and for grade E 50-59% (30-25 points) of the total number of points. 0-24 points = FX. - Pass the final test - at the end of the semester (max 50 points). The test serves to verify the student's theoretical knowledge. Grading criteria based on points: to achieve grade A, you need to get 90-100% (50-46 points); for grade B, 80-89% (45-41 points); for grade C, 70-79% (40-36 points); for grade D, 60-69% (35-31 points) and for grade E, 50-59% (30-25 points) of the total points. 0-24 points = FX. Total student workload - distribution of work hours: 2 credits = 60 work hours: - Lecture attendance: total for the semester (13 hours).

- Student's written work and its elaboration - designing a knowledge test (22 working hours).
- Preparation for the final test (25 working hours).

The maximum number of points is 100. The condition for passing the course is the achievement of at least 50 points, i.e. 50% of the total, with the condition that at least half of the points (50%) must be obtained in each assignment. To achieve a grade of A, 90-100% (90-100 points); for a grade of B, 80-89% (80-89 points); for a grade of C, 70-79% (70-79 points); for a grade of D, 60-69% (60-69 points); and for a grade of E, 50-59% (50-59 points) of the total number of points. 49-0 points = FX.

Results of education:

Knowledge

The student

- has an in-depth knowledge of the methodological foundations of assessment theory and practice, and of the theory and practice of student assessment,
- understand the importance of assessment and feedback in learning,
- can give an overview of current trends in assessment in education,
- has knowledge of the purpose and methods of diagnostic, formative and summative assessment,
- has knowledge of methodological guidelines for assessing and grading students,
- has knowledge of the similarities and differences between skills and knowledge tests,
- knows the principles of writing tasks,
- knows of the principles for the preparation of assesment and measurement guides,
- knows the principles of testing knowledge.

Skills:

The student

- will be able to evaluate the teaching-learning process and its outcomes, the learning process and its outcomes: will be able to carry out effective pedagogical evaluation,
- has basic practical experience in assessing learners' current levels of development and developmental characteristics,
- is able to apply different methods and forms of assessment, to assess the learner without prejudice and stereotypes,
- can identify developmental and individual characteristics in practice,
- is able to apply in practice the pedagogical assessment tools,
- is able to test subject knowledge.

Competences:

The student

- identifies with his/her profession and with institutional standards,
- demonstrates empathy towards others,

Name of the university: J. Selye University
Name of the faculty: Faculty of Education
Code: KPD/UZ/ ZPP/22	Name: Basics of first aid and biology for teachers
Types, range and methods of educational activities: Form of study: Seminar Recommended extent of course (in hours): Per week: 1 For the study period: 13 Methods of study: present
Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester of study: 1.
Level of study: I.
Prerequisites:
Conditions for passing the subject: The condition for passing the subject is active participation in the seminars, which consist of a theoretical and practical part. During the practical part, the student will try out, practice, and at the end, demonstrate basic practical skills in providing emergency first aid in various simulated situations and various types of injuries and accidents. The partial evaluation of the subject is the evaluation of the seminar work (extent of at least five pages, TNR font, font size 12) on an arbitrarily selected topic from the list of topics covered according to the subject outline. Evaluation criteria (30%): - Summary of the issue according to the currently available professional literature, drawn from at least three professional sources - Description of a specific case based on own experience, or design of a specific practical method for implementing the given topic in practice - Requirements for content, form, and graphic, image documentation. In the final part, the student proves his theoretical knowledge by completing the test (70%). Final grade of the subject: A – 100-90%, B – 89-80%, C – 79-70%, D – 69-60%, E – 59-50%. Achieving 50% of the total points is necessary to award credits. Total student load: 2 credits = 60 hours (13 hours: participation in lectures, 47 hours: self-study and preparation for the exam, preparation of a seminar paper).
Results of education: Knowledge: - The student can name the causes, consequences, and solutions of the most frequent sudden actions of traumatic and non-traumatic origin threatening the life and health of newborns, children, and adults. - The student can summarize theoretical knowledge about basic life-saving actions, disorders of consciousness, breathing disorders, seizures, bleeding from wounds, shock, fractures, joint injuries, and burns. - The student can design adjustments to create a safe environment for children and organize various school activities. - The student can characterize individual organ systems and combine them with knowledge of first aid in case of failure of these systems.

Abilities:

- The student can evaluate situations with a focus on minimizing the risk of further endangering himself and can call emergency medical services and other components of the integrated rescue system in the event of an accident.
- The student can practically perform essential emergency support of life functions - opening the airways, rescue breathing, chest compressions (heart massage), stopping bleeding, stabilizing position, cardiopulmonary resuscitation (revival), including the use of automatic external defibrillation,
- The student can provide psychological support to the disabled.
- The student can provide health care for various types of children's diseases, such as allergies, metabolic disorders, parasites, and respiratory and gastrointestinal tract diseases.

Competencies:

- The student acquires a positive attitude toward providing first aid and preventing sudden threats to the life and health of school-age children and adults.
- The student can justify the importance of providing first aid in the emergency health care system in sudden life and health-threatening events.
- The student can practically use knowledge and skills in dealing with sudden life and serious health-threatening events of traumatic and/or non-traumatic origin.

Brief syllabus:

The importance of first aid, the implementation of first aid in the educational process, and the procedure for reporting an accident to the emergency services.

Safety in the school environment (in the building, in the yard, during free time activities), building a first aid kit at school and school activities.

Essential characteristics of the respiratory system. Determining the affected person's condition, examination of the airways and essential vital functions, stabilization position, removal of a foreign body from the airways, and artificial respiration.

The structure and function of the heart, diseases of the circulatory system, and the heart providing first aid in case of cardiac arrest.

The function of blood and blood elements, stopping bleeding in different types of wounds, types of bandages and wound dressing techniques, and internal bleeding.

Essential characteristics of the musculoskeletal system, muscles, and bones. Injury of tendons, joints, treatment of fractures.

Types of shock states, anaphylactic shock, and essential characteristics of the immune system.

Essential characteristics of the nervous system. Damage to the nervous system, epileptic seizure, convulsions, and first aid.

Essential characteristics of the skin. Types of burns, first aid for burns, eye injuries.

Essential characteristics of the gastrointestinal system. First aid for poisoning.

Wounds caused by stings, bites, planning, organization, and implementation of walks, trips, camps, and safe transportation of children.

Allergies, frequent diseases of the respiratory tract and gastrointestinal tract, parasites in childhood, autoimmune diseases, and metabolic disorders in children.
